

Time again for a

PRS Holiday Party !

Join Pacific Railroad Society members, families, and friends for a good old fashioned railfan get-together at Joselyn Center in Story Park

210 N. Chapel Avenue

Alhambra CA 91801

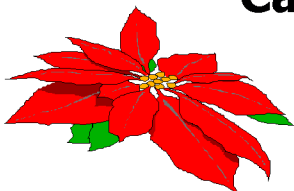

Friday, December 11, 2009, 7:00 p.m.

EATS: Hor d'ourves, munchies, desserts and beverages (non-alcoholic), all provided by volunteers. You can help, too, by bringing your own favorite hor d'ourves, munchies, desserts, or beverages to share!

Entertainment: It's been ten years since PRS established the Pacific Railroad Museum at the Santa Fe Depot in San Dimas. Since then, several important collections have been incorporated into the museum's archives. The museum volunteers have combed through these collections to bring you a sampler of the work of some of the Southland's greatest rail photographers and chroniclers. We'll see the work of Ralph Melching, Bill Farmer, Richard Petersen, Herb Johnson, Dave Cameron, and others--some seen for the very first time!
